Two Good Ones Uncovered in the Race for Two Year-Olds, Lighthouse Proving Best by Winning.

San Francisco, Cal., December 17.—G. H. Holle's good three-year-old Hanbridge vanquished formidable opposition, including Jeanne d'Arc, Madman, Collector Jessup, Early Tide and three others, in the Ward Handicap of seven furlongs at Oakland today, It was the second victory in three starts for the good colt from the middle west. His only defeat on the coast thus far was sustained when racing against Roseben and he was credited with being the chief contributing factor in bringing about that mighty horse's sensational downfall in last Monday's 'race. Hanbridge's splendid showing on that occasion brought him plenty of local support today. This, notwithstanding the presence in the race of the hitherto almost invulnerable Jeanne d'Arc. The latter palpably lacked condition and suicidal pacemaking tactics pursued by her rider. J. Lee, quite finished her. At the end she was pulled up sharply and lost second place. When questioned by the stewards Lee said that Butler, on Hanbridge, rodeso close that he was forced to pull un to avoid going over the inner fence. Butler partially confirmed this by stating that Hanbridge was a pronounced rail runner.

Much Interest centered in the running of the closing race for two-year-olds. Among the eleven starters were two supposed crackerjacks in Lighthouse and Fanatic, particularly the latter, a halibrother to Admiration, which was purchased for an insignificant sum at E. R. Thomas' recent dispersal sale, and had shown phenomenally fast trials in private. Fanatic ran green, palpably unconditioned and finished unplaced, while Lighthouse, the half-brother to another turf celebrity in Cairngorm, ran like a real race horse.

Messrs, J. C. Yeager and Emil Herz received a code telegram from John Ryan of Chicago, which they were mable to decipher until just before nost time. It urged them to back Lighthouse.

The card was one of the best of the season and produced high-class sport. This despite the shortcomings of public choices, J. R. Laughrey being the only successful favorite during the a Archibald Slightly Hurt-Gemmell Defeats Prince Ahmed in Very Fast Time.

Ahmed in Very Fast Time.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 17.—What appeared for a moment to be a serious accident today took place in the fifth race, when The Sultan fell when mearing the stretch, Lee Harrison II. and Airs falling over him. Riders Page and Shilling were up in an instant, but Archibald lay stunned for a spell, but soon recovered, suffering only a slight sprain of his left foot. On account of the accident he did not ride in the last race.

Gemmell, W. Walker's fast gelding, proved the particular star of the day, winning the Observatory Handicap in a mild drive from Prince Ahmed in a very fast six and one-half furlongs sprint. The time, 1:17½, equals the track record. Dandelion, well thought of in this race, was sharply cut off in the final sixteenth just as he was responding gamely to the whip. But for this he might have given the winner an argument in the closing strides. Two of the finishes were of the sensational order, especially that in which Woodcraft beat Ida May by the scantest margin possible in the third race. The same hair-raising finish took place in the day's opener, when Haensel caught Belle of Iroquois right in the last stride.

The betting was brisk and heavy, all of the twenty-four bookies having their hands full to accommodate the speculators. Most of the bookmakers were successful on the day's results.

W. Walker has set down A. Harris indefinitely, claiming that the boy's indifferent riding lately induced this action.

E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin is not so seriously ill as has been reported. He is confined to his home with a slight cold and is expected to be at the track again in a few days.

LOCKE LAW TEST IN THE COURTS.

New Orleans, La., December 17.—Five informations in all against the testers of the Locke antigambling law at the City Park race track yesterday were filed by District Attorney Adams today, and all of those against whom the informations were filed, six in number, appeared and gave bonds in the sum of $500 each, with the exception of Edward Corrigan, who is not in the city. Colonel Samuel F. Heaslip, president of the City Park Racing Association, was one of the race track promoters against whom an information was filed. He surrendered this morning to Sheriff Long and immediately gave bond. He was accompanied by his bondsman, J. Loewengardt, the jeweler, who signed in the sum of $500. Two informations appear against W. W. Lyles, and one each against Placide Frigerio and Robert M. Shefield. They all gave bond in the sum of $500, Alexander Brewster signing for the three.

Heaslip and Corrigan are charged jointly in one information by District Attorney Adams with violating the state of the control of t

Robert M. Sheffield. They all gave bond in the sum of $500, Alexander Brewster signing for the three.

Heaslip and Corrigan are charged jointly in one information by District Attorney Adams with violating Act 57, of 1908, relative to aiding and assisting in a horse race. Sheffield and Frigerio are charged in separate informations with aiding and assisting in the operation of a betting book, while the two informations against Lyles charge him with promoting, aiding and assisting in the operation of a betting book and assisting in the operation of a betting book and assisting in a horse race. The information against Edward Corrigan, part owner of the City Park race track, who declares that he was entirely ignorant of the movement to test the Locke law, will stand against him. It is not thought necessary to take steps to have Mr. Corrigan brought to New Orleans, since it was learned that he intends coming to this city to face the charge against him. In fact, he is now preparing to leave Louisville for New Orleans.

Heaslip and Lyles will be arraigned before Judge Baker tomorrow morning and both will doubtless plead not guilty, for it is their intention, as per agreement, to fight the Locke law upon the grounds that it is unconstitutional.

Denouncing yesterday's so-called test of the Locke bill as a farce and criticising the district attorney and the police department for not preventing the violation of the law, Colonel Samuel F. Heaslip, president of the New Orleans Jockey Club, today announced that he would resign all official connection with the club. "Testing the Locke bill is a waste of time, declared Mr. Heaslip, "and the best lawyers I know have assured me of it. The contemptible business of yesterday solidifies sentiment against the whole institution of racing. If racing is ever to be resumed in Louisiana, it must be with the consent of the people. The people today are strongly | against it. The whole thing has aggravated and annoyed me to an inexpressible degree. My integrity has been questioned and persons who do not know me are inclined to believe that I was mixed up in that miserable farce at the City Park track yesterday. More than sixty days ago I notified the board of directors that I would not be identified with any test of the Locke law that might be made and that if the club took any part in any test I would resign.

if the club took any part in any test I would resign.

"When W. W. Lyles came to me I gave him written permission to run a few horses over the track, as I had to numerous horse owners. It was specifically stipulated that Mr. Lyles was not to violate the Locke law or any other law. Mr. Lyles is a lawyer himself and now he is trying to drag me into the affair by using my permit as documentary evidence. The district attorney will see for himself that I gave the permit for the use of the track under express conditions that no law would be violated."

ONE OF MANY BETTING PLANS.

New York, December 17.—Several lawyers who have been making a close study of the betting situation as regards the metropolitan tracks say that as the law does not prevent any one from making a wager, either on credit or in cash, it is not illegal for such a speculator to record his own wager. "A supposed bookmaker or a man who makes a business of accepting wagers cannot record wagers under the law," said one of these lawyers yesterday, "but there is nothing to prevent a man who makes a bet with him from making a private record of such a transaction. In that way it may develop that bettors when they place wagers will hand, with their money, a card upon which is written the details of the bet. The money and card can be pinned together and placed in the alleged bookmaker's pocket until after the race, when it can be retained or paid off as the case may be. The case of Charles Mahoney, which resulted in an acquittal in the Court of Special Sessions last fall, covered this particular point. Mahoney accepted a cash bet which was accompanied by a slip of paper upon which the nature of the bet was recorded. "Mahoney was arrested, charged with being a bookmaker, but he was discharged. On the strength of that verdict we believe that betting can be carried on at the race tracks on this basis without interruption." New York, December 17.—Several lawyers who sale, which was an even law to be early part of the week, but had little to say regarding plans for next season's racing. After a stay of a few days in the city Mr. Winn will depart for the coast.

J. H. McCormick, who has raced his horses at New Orleans every winter for a number of years, is now devoting his time to looking after his property interests, being heavily interested in Sheepshead erty interests, being heavily interested in Sheepshead Bay real estate.

J. Murphy, who formerly trained for David Gid-con and had charge of the Keene horses shipped to England, has returned home and says that all the horses shipped well and that there was not a single horse sick when they were unloaded on the other side.

OAKLAND RACING HIGH CLASS.

San Francisco, Cal., December 17.—The high standard set for the conduct of the winter race meeting now in progress at Oakland is being rigidly adhered to by the New California Jockey Club management and the results of the first five weeks of the season speak for themselves. The sport has been of a type that will compare most favorably with that of former seasons. There has been an entire absence of scandal and the few form reversals that have been in evidence are no more than must be expected in the natural course of racing under constantly changing track conditions. In consequence of the winning of forty-six per cent. of the races so far run by favorites the public is considerably ahead from the speculative standpoint and the bookies are all heavy losers to date. Numerous bankrolls have already been shot to pieces, but others have been brought into play, and at the present writing there are more layers in line than at any previous time during the season and quite as many as at the corresponding time last winter. San Francisco, Cal., December 17.—The high stan

INCREASING INTEREST AT SAN ANTONIO.

San Antonio, Tex., December 17.—The contemplated test of the Locke anti-betting law in Louisiana was a general topic of conversation among horsemen here today, and they are fervently praying for the success of the racing interests. In that event the 350 horses now here will be shipped to the Crescent City to take part in the racing there. Whatever doubt existed heretofore regarding the success of the present racing venture was dispelled this afternoon when a crowd that filled the spacious plant to overflowing was on hand. Speculation was also sharp and gave the twelve layers that drew in today plenty of opportunity to handle money. Parton's victory in the feature race over Transform and other good youngsters was the surprise of the afternoon. The riding flonors were again divided between jockeys Pickens and Butwell, each scoring a pair of brackets.

Judge Murphy announced today that on December 20 there will be a race for cavalry horses to be ridden by officers of Fort Sam Houston under full military equipment.

Jockey Pendergast was today suspended for the meeting here for misuse of his-badge privileges.

ST. LOUIS FAIR GROUNDS A PARK.

St. Louis, Mo., 'December 17.—'The old Fair Grounds, the scene of many a brilliant and exciting contest between some of the greatest thoroughbred race horses of this country, has been acquired by the city and will be turned into a public park. Park Commissioner Scanlan says that the public will scarcely know the famous old race course after his men get through with it, but predicts that it will become one of the most popular parks in the city.

About the only things which will be left to identify it as the old Fair Grounds of our childhood will be the magnificent old trees, the lake, bear pits, animal cages and the 131.46 acres of about as fine blue grass as one could find anywhere.

Athletic fields will be established in the western half of the park, the space occupied by the race track being unusually well adapted for this purpose, The eastern half of the grounds will be utilized for park purposes.

E. T. C.. Kansas City, Mo. Registration in the Stud Book controls and the horse is registered as his name is printed in this newspaper.

E. S. T., Cleveland, O. After Janeta was scratched the wager still stood on Progress and had the latter won you would have been entitled to payment, but having been beaten the bet lost.

Winner—Ch. g, by Lodowic—Salt Grass Mag (trained by H. G. Bedwell).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Nadzu, from inside early close quarters, rapidly improved his position in the last half and decisively outstayed the leaders in the stretch. Be Thankful cutbroke and outpaced the others decisively to the last sixteenth and was a game second. Okentle broke slowly but improved his position gradually and, after being reserved in the middle running, closed up fast in the last three furlongs, but failed to get up in a fast and game effort. Billy Pullman ran in prominent contention for seven furlongs and tired as if stale. May Amelia, after nearest and stremous pursuit for seven furlongs, failed to stay. Northwest is not ready. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by Banastar—Debacle (trained by G. Ham).
Went to post at 2:59. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handly; second and third driving. Hanbridge, from an inside slow start, was patiently reserved in striking distance pursuit, then ranged along-side the leaders midway of the stretch and, after boring to the inside, finally drew out like a shot at the end. Collector Jessup began slowly, but quickly ran into prominent attendance on the leaders, dwelt on the last turn, then came from a long way behind with a belated rush. Jeanne d'Arc was excessively urged to dispose of Madman and drew out like winning in the stretch, but tired and was crowded to the inside and forced to pull up at the end. Early Tide ran forwardly to the half, dropped back on the turn in deep going and finished with a belated swift closing effort and is extra good. Madman, excessively used to the turn, was forced into bad going through the stretch under an injudicious ride.

Overweights—Collector Jessup, 2 pounds; El Picaro, 2.

Winner—B. g, by Watercress—Linda Vista (trained by M. Hirsch).
Went to post at 3:54. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Lighthouse, from a lucky start, ran in forward pursuit early, then drew out decisively in the stretch and won as his rider pleased. Footloose, outpaced early, fluished with a rush. Light Knight set the early pace and tired in the closing drive, but was a game third. Bishop W. ran in inside forward contention in close quarters in the bad going and was a game and persistent fourth under difficulties. Fanatic, a good looker, showed brilliant speed in nearest attendance or the pacemakers to midway of the stretch and tired, but was palpably short. Fanculi Hall, flatfooted at the start, closed a big gap in the last half.
